

What Does This Privacy Notice Cover?

This Privacy Notice describes what personal information Replogle Globes Partners, LLC of 125 Fencil Lane, Hillside, Illinois 60162 collects, how we collect and use your personal information, who we disclose it to and why, the measures we take to protect your personal information, and the choices you may have regarding our use of your personal information. This Privacy Notice covers our ReplogleGlobes.com online website and our operations in the United States.

Summary: Our goal is to minimize the amount of information that we collect. Less information means more data security. In general, we only collect information that pertains to processing and delivering your order/transaction and supporting our operations. We do not sell your information to third parties. We do provide order information to third party carriers such as FEDEX, UPS, USPS, and freight/delivery companies to deliver your specific order or to obtain freight quotes for transit. These carriers sometimes use subcontractors who they disclose your order's delivery information to. We provide the required information to third party payment processors such credit card processors, payment services such as Afterpay and Paypal to process your payments, refunds or other adjustments. We do not keep individual consumer credit or other consumer payment card numbers, except the last 4 digits of the card number. We do limited marketing analysis that allows us to understand what characteristics customers have such as income, geographic location (address), education level to gain a level of understanding of our customer base. If you email us, we do keep the email chain to facilitate communication and our operations. We email tracking numbers and reach out to customers via email and phone when we have questions about your order. When requested by law enforcement or a government agency, we may turn over the information that they request, to the extent that we have the information. We will provide you with a free copy of the information we have on file by requesting it via email at info@replogleglobes.com. We may require you to verify your identity to confirm that you are the person that the information is about. To opt out, delete or correct information we have on file you may email us at info@replogleglobes.com. More information is below.

What Personal Information Do We Collect?

We may collect or receive the categories of personal information listed below, which may depend on the products or services you may use, as well as your device and account settings. Not all categories of personal information will be collected or received about every individual.

Basic Personal Identifiers, such as name, telephone number, email address, government-issued identifiers (e.g., national identification numbers, driver's license numbers), signatures, and physical, shipping, and billing addresses. Also special delivery instructions such as access codes when required.

Device and Online Identifiers, such as account login information, MAC address, IP address, cookie IDs, mobile ad IDs, social media information.

Internet and Other Network Activity Information, such as information about your browsing or search activity as well as your interactions with our websites, mobile applications, emails, or advertisements (for example keystroke patterns which help us determine if it is you or a bot who is interacting with us).

Commercial Information, such as purchase and transaction history information (products or services you have purchased, or returned), details about products associated with services you receive from or through us, product reviews, and contest entries. If you submit a voicemail, form or email with questions, photos or report a product damage claim, delivery issue, product claim with photos or videos, or request any other assistance from us we maintain those records.

Communications, such as the content of emails, text messages, interactions with any bots (AI assistant chatbots), or other communications, call logs, and calendar information, where Replogle Globes is a party to the exchange. This includes contact information and correspondence through social media channels such as Facebook. If you submit a voicemail, form or email with questions, comments, photos or report a product damage claim, delivery issue, product claim with photos or videos, or request any other assistance from us we maintain those records.

Demographic Information, such as age, date of birth, family or marital status, household income, education, professional and employment information, software or virtual assets owned.

Financial Information, such as credit or debit card numbers, and financial account numbers, including third party processing services such as Paypal and Afterpay. We do not keep your full credit card or debit card account numbers in our databases.

Biometric Information: We do not use Biometric data such as voice prints, imagery of the iris or retina, face geometry, palm prints or fingerprints.

Geolocation, such as data about the location of your device, which may be imprecise (i.e., inferred from your device's IP address). This is used only for fraud prevention. (Example. Our card processor will note that the delivery address and billing address are different and that the IP address is out of the United States.)

Background Information, such as background checks and criminal convictions.

How Do We Use Personal Information?

We use personal information to provide you with products and services and to operate and improve our business. For example, we use it for:

Performing services, including maintaining or servicing accounts, providing customer service, processing or fulfilling orders and transactions, verifying customer information, processing payments, providing financing, providing and conducting analytics services, providing storage, or providing similar services.

Performing and providing advertising and marketing services, including targeted advertising. Providing information and product recommendations.

Auditing and monitoring of transactions and engagement, including auditing related to counting ad impressions to unique visitors, verifying positioning and quality of ad impressions, and auditing compliance.

Conducting short-term, transient use, such as non-personalized advertising shown as part of your current interaction with us.

Helping to ensure security and integrity and prevent fraud.

Undertaking activities to verify or maintain the quality or safety of our services or devices and to improve, upgrade, or enhance them.

Debugging to identify and repair errors.
